CONDUCTOR AND SOLOISTS BIO

JOCILENE AYRES MALAS (Conductor)

began piano studies at age 3 in São Paulo, Brazil.

She holds a Bachelor's in Sacred Music from the Baptist Theological Faculty of São Paulo, a Bachelor's in Voice/Operatic Performance from Santa Marcelina College (São Paulo), and an Artist Diploma in Operatic Performance from the Hartt School of Music, University of Hartford (Connecticut, USA). For over 32 years, she has served as Music Minister in Brazilian churches across the United States, sharing her expertise to nurture artistic growth and enable congregations to worship the Lord with excellence and devotion.

MONICA MALAS, (Soloist) a senior soprano studying Church

Music at Baylor University, is from Queens, New York, with Brazilian and Greek heritage. She began singing in church choirs and musicals and performed with the prestigious National Children's Choir (NCC). At Frank Sinatra School of the Arts High School, she excelled as a soloist and in major musical roles. At Baylor, she shines in vocal ensembles, opera performances, and solo concerts, earning NATS vocal competition honors. Monica plans to pursue a Master's in vocal performance. She aims to glorify God through her voice and artistry.

POLLYANNA SOARES (Soloist) Born and raised in a devoted Christian family, Pollyanna Soares began her musical journey in childhood with piano studies and singing in church productions alongside her music ministers, including Mrs. Malas. Her deep involvement in church music continued as she earned a Bachelor's Degree in Voice from Nyack College. For over 15 years, she has been a dedicated member of the worship and praise team at Liberty Baptist Church, where she continues to inspire congregations with her gifted voice and heartfelt expressions of faith through sacred music and performance.

ARICA KEBREAU'S (Soloist) love for music was nurtured from an early age, inspired by the beautiful melodies of her grandmother.

This early foundation blossomed into a lifelong passion, leading her to join the community gospel choir The Angelic Voices for Christ, winners of the 1987 McDonald's Gospel Fest. Guided by faith and a heart for service, Arica is married to Edens Kebreau, pastor of Immanuel Church. They have 4 children. Arica faithfully serves as Director of Women's Ministry, Worship Team member and Program Development and Implementation. Beyond the church walls, she extends her commitment to empowering others as a board member and Community Liaison for Heart to Heart Empowerment Inc. using her gifts to inspire, uplift, and strengthen her community.
